Correction: The Mark Protection Committee meeting will be held at 10:00, Sunday 2 Aug 2020 NZST, which is 3 p.m. PDT and 6 p.m. EDT. Everyone is welcome to attend.

There's been a lot of queries about watching recorded panels. Processing each panel takes almost as long as the panel itself. Please be patient.

Help, help! Sheep are going missing from the bucolic farming town of Goldenfields -- they're hiring adventurers to find them. Are you up to the task? (Dungeons and Dragons game, 3 spaces left. 4AM Sunday NZST (noon Eastern on Saturday). Contact Em Fleming (@Em Fleming) for details. No experience necessary.

From the Fairy Tale Contract Law panel: "In the Goosegirl, the horse gets its head cut off. Are they fae or the Mafia?" "The Goosefather..." "I'm going to make you a pumpkin you can't refuse..."

Discussion Group Chat following "Love in the time of Covid-19" Douglas Spencer: "How do we look after each other?" -- "Coffee, gin/rum/whiskey, mac & cheese, and the dismantling of capitalism."

I seem to remember the ConZealand Chairs sharing pavlova with us at WorldCon 76 in San Jose. So, in honor of all their hard work, I made my first pavlova. Thank you, Norman and Kelly!

For those who are struggling to keep track, today is the 153rd of March. And the zeroth of August.

Between panels, I'm thoroughly enjoying my SF&F Tiki Tour of New Zealand with [absolutely lovely artwork!] Stamps. More determined than ever to visit for real.

On the third day of Worldcon, I boldly went to watch the first two days —Having a Worldcon online means we can see ALL the queries that #info-desk are helping with. Just want to say a huge Thank You! to all the volunteers & staff helping make #coNZealand!

Lovely dinner at Kazaguruma, Cuba St. The cheesecake with Yuzu curd was delightful! (Also cauliflower tempura, beef tataki (first photo), agedashi)
